

Myanmar Investments Hosts its Second Annual Investor Day

Prof. Dr. Aung Tun Thet, Alyce Abdalla, Economic Unit Chief of the US Embassy Rangoon, and Dr. Peter Brimble, Principal Country Specialist, ADB discuss "Myanmar's economic prospects."

American Ambassador Scot Marciel delivers the closing keynote speech discussing President Obama's decision to lift sanctions and readmit Myanmar to the U.S. preferred tariff system.

Myanmar Investments International Limited ("MIL"), the London listed Myanmar focused investment company, hosted its second annual "Investor Day" conference in Yangon, Myanmar this week. At this yearly event, MIL brings together overseas investors from the US, Europe and Asia to meet with senior representatives of Myanmar including civil servants, diplomats, businessmen and bankers.

On 17th October these participants gathered at the Park Royal Hotel to discuss the current economic and political outlook for the country, as well as key sectors of the economy.

This year's conference both opened and closed with high-profile keynote addresses. The opening keynote address by Professor Dr. Aung Tun Thet outlined the positioning of Myanmar as a high-potential growth market within Asia.

The United States of America Ambassador to Myanmar, H.E. Scot Marciel, later closed the conference with a summary of the likely impact of the recent lifting of sanctions by the U.S. government.

The day included panels discussing current issues and trends in the country pertaining to the economy, financing Myanmar's expansion and issues when making investments in Myanmar. There were also detailed discussions on a number of sectors, such as consumer and tourism.

U Aung Htun (Managing Director) and Mike Dean (Finance Director) of Myanmar Investments also provided a briefing on MIL's portfolio and updates on the Company's investment programme.

In total over 60 participants attended the event.

U Aung Htun commented "Myanmar continues to draw significant interest from the international community, and for good reason. With a new civilian democracy and the lifting of sanctions by the U.S. government, we remain confident in our investment strategy focused on the emergence of Myanmar."

MYANMAR

---

INVESTMENTS

Myanmar Investments is listed on the London Stock Exchange's AIM Market for the purpose of investing in businesses operating in or with business exposure to Myanmar. It has already made investments in the telecommunication towers and microfinance sectors.

Since June 2013, the Company has raised US$34 million for investment in Myanmar.

For more information about MIL, please visit www.myanmarinvestments.com.